Publishing Agreement

Student Name:..... Year:.....

The Erskine Park High School website contains a range of student work and photographs of students. A student's work and/or photograph are only published with permission from the student and their parent/guardian. The full name of a student is not published on the school's website.

In addition, our school seeks to promote the achievements of our students through both internal and external printed media (eg the school newsletter and local newspapers). Such promotion often involves publishing the name and/or photograph of students.

Any publication of student names, photographs or work must have the permission of the Principal.

Student Permission:

I DO give permission for my work or photograph to be published on the school's website AND I do give permission for my work, photograph and name to be published in internal and external printed media.
